Key Terms

- Fund distribution date* is the date on which the Excess of Reportable Income over Distributions is deemed as being received by relevant participants for UK tax purposes.
For the reporting period 1 July 2017 to 30 June 2018, the fund distribution date is 31 December 2018 which a UK individual relevant participant is taxable on in the tax year 6 April 2018 - 5 April 2019.
You should ensure that you seek personal tax advice when completing your tax return.
- ISIN code* is short for International Securities Identification Number; a unique security identifier of the fund share class.
- Income distributed per share* is the total per share amount of income the fund distributed to shareholders in respect of the reporting period.
You should ensure that you refer to any distribution vouchers received to ensure that you include the correct distributions in your tax return.
- Ex-date on which distribution was declared* is the effective date of the dividend payment (i.e. date on which the fund value dropped by the dividend amount).
- Excess of reportable income over distributions* is the amount of income reported per share in excess of cash distributions paid to shareholders in respect of the profits of the period.
- Where the Reporting Fund holds more than 60% of its investments in debt securities (or similar) the share class is a Bond Fund and the distribution should be treated as interest income in the hands of the investor.
Where the Reporting Fund does not hold more than 60% of its investments in debt securities (or similar) the share class is an Equity Fund and the distribution should be treated as a dividend income in the hands of the investor.
You should ensure that you seek personal tax advice when completing your tax return.
